

Containerized Firefighting Pump Set

DESCRIPTION

In this, firefighting pumps, jockey pumps, its controllers and all accessories are engineered inside the Container. All pipings are in accordance with customer requirements. All large equipment are accessible by doors around the container. Material handling arrangements are provided for easy unit movement.

ADVANTAGES

1. Only simple water and power supplies connection at site will make unit operational
 2. Built in a clean & controlled environment
 3. Factory tested as per stringent International standard's requirement
 4. Easy installation of containerized pump
 5. Significant reduction in time and labour costs
 6. Eliminates potential coordination problems later on at site
 7. Integral pumps station
 8. Compact & safe design
 9. Reduced environmental noise level
-